Congratulations David Walters

Congratulations David Walters on being named the new Alabama State Director.

David has served as Director, Program Administration on Reecie Stagnolia's (KY) staff for a number of years.

His new email address is: david.walters@dpe.edu

Here is the announcement of his appointment by Mark Heinrich, Chancellor, Alabama Community College System:

I am very pleased to announce that I have appointed Mr. David Walters to the position of Vice Chancellor for Adult Education and GED Testing, effective July 7. Working with our experienced staff in Montgomery, Mr. Walters will provide leadership and guidance to our Literacy Program grant recipients and oversight of our GED Testing Centers.

Mr. Walters' career spans 21 years, with leadership roles in early childhood education, local adult education, and state-level adult education administration. He served as an early childhood instructor and administrator, an adult education instructor, an adult education local program director, a state-level consultant, and a senior associate. Most recently, Mr. Walters served as the director of program administration for Kentucky Adult Education, Council on Postsecondary Education.

Mr. Walters has served on many state and national committees and workgroups. He is a co-chair for the National Adult Education Professional Development Consortium (NAEPDC) State Staff Workgroup. He has served on state and local Workforce Development Boards, as well as on both the Executive and Steering Committees of the Governor's Reentry Task Force, which is focused on reducing recidivism in Kentucky's correctional system.

Mr. Walters holds a master's degree in adult and higher education, and a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Morehead State University in Morehead, KY.

Please join me in welcoming Mr. Walters to his new position at the Department.

Mark
