Best Wishes Marva

Our Colleague Marva Doremus (TN) writes:

I just wanted to pass along to you that I am leaving Tennessee in two weeks, but AE is not rid of me yet! I am moving back to my home state of Indiana and have accepted a position as regional coordinator for the southwestern part of the state where my 86 year old Mother and sister live which is also where I will live. My daughter lives in Indianapolis (and my 16 month old grandson) and my son lives here. I will be halfway between them.

This is a perfect situation for me. I couldn't have asked for anything more ideal. I get back into the field – the part I really love about AE- and I don't expect to work 80+ hours as the norm anymore. It's time to be with my family.

Congratulations Marva and our best wishes. Family First.
