Informing Postsecondary and Employers of New HSE Test Options

The NAEPDC High School Equivalency (HSE) Workgroup (Bob Purga, NY, Chair) has been discussing the advisability of state directors informing the postsecondary institutions and employers in the state about the new HSE assessments on which your credential is based.

To that end, under the leadership of Tom Robbins (MO), they developed the attached draft correspondence as a guide in case you feel the need to inform those institutions and/or employers in your state.

Needless to say, there is no requirement that you send such a correspondence and feel free to edit to suit your style and needs if you do decide to do so.

We will post the draft on the High School Equivalency Options page on www.naepdc.org

Keep up the good work. Let me know when we can help.
