Dear Colleagues:

Jon Kerr has shared this news of a valuable resource available to English Language faculty and administrators:

In partnership with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the Washington State Board for Community and Technical Colleges Basic Education for Adults is pleased to announce four regional Integrated Digital English Acceleration (I-DEA) two-day training conferences around the country in California, Texas, Georgia, and New York!

The conferences will equip English language faculty and administrators with practical information and hands-on tools to successfully implement and deliver I-DEA at their locations.

The I-DEA flipped classroom hybrid model provides a year of free, professionally developed open source curriculum that prepares lowest level English Language Learners to enter college and career pathways with digital literacy and academic skills. I-DEA's outcomes are 9 percent to 16 percent higher than traditional English language classrooms. See attached for a full description of I-DEA.

There is no registration fee for the conference. Please use the following link to access more information and to register for one of the conferences: <https://www.sbctc.edu/colleges-staff/programs-services/i-dea/idea-conferences.aspx>

Furthermore, please don't hesitate to contact William Durden (wdurden@sbctc.edu or 360.704.4368) with any questions or for additional information.

We look forward to seeing you at one of our four regional conferences.

"Better Jobs. Brighter Futures. A Stronger Washington."
