Dear Colleagues,

Amelia Valasek has announced that she will be leaving her position as State Director of Idaho on November 3. Thanks to Amelia for all her enthusiastic leadership over the past few years.

Please join me in welcoming Cruz Gallegos as the new State Director, who has already come on board to learn from Amelia.

“Cruz Gallegos comes to Idaho Adult Education from Seattle, Washington. Prior to accepting the role of State Director for Idaho, she worked for the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County. Cruz brings with her a range of experience in grants management and workforce programs (specifically WIOA Title I and Opportunity Youth). She has extensive work and volunteer experience with community-based organizations, schools, and nonprofits. Cruz holds a Masters of Arts in Education Policy and Organizational Research from University of California, Berkeley.”
