Greetings State Directors of Adult Education,

Following the transition from Lennox McLendon's outstanding leadership to me, I want to make sure you have noticed that information is continuing to be disseminated to you through the News, Views and Clues (NVC) distribution. This is the official information vehicle of the National Adult Education Professional Development Consortium/National Council of State Directors of Adult Education (NAEPDC/NCSDAE).

All types of information of interest to the Adult Education community will be sent under the NVC cover. This may include notices regarding the National Training Institute or other trainings and meetings we sponsor. Additionally, we are disseminating legislative updates and coordinating closely with OCTAE to assist with circulating information and providing training updates. We are also collaborating with COABE to inform the field of issues, trainings and other resources. We will offer articles of interest helpful to your practice and will post announcements of position openings that you share.

I also want to remind you of a service available to you as a State Director. I am happy to post colleague questions through NVC for you. Colleague responses will be summarized for you and the summary can be made available to the all responders. This will save you the time and effort of receiving numerous emails and cataloging them. Of course, colleague responses may also be sent directly to you if you wish. In order to circulate a colleague question, just send an email to me with your request.

As always, NAEPDC and NCSDAE exist to serve your needs as a State Director. I am delighted to be working for you and look forward to hearing from you regarding your needs for information or training and any suggestions for how we may improve services to State Directors.

Best regards,
Pat

Keep up the good work. Let me know when we can help.
